ELLEN ANDREWS, DIRECTOR OF CHURCH WORLD SERVICES IMMIGRATION AND REFUGEE PROGRAM

Durham Native, Ellen Andrews, is the Director of Church World Service's ("CWS") Immigration and Refugee Program --- one of two organizations of its kind in Durham. During the past eight years, they have assisted over 2,500 refugees and immigrants from more than 20 countries to resettle into new homes, new jobs, and new lifestyles in the Triangle Area. As a faith-based global humanitarian organization, CWS is also known for managing CROP fundraising walks. Staff and volunteers base their resettlement work on an empowerment-focused declining model of support designed to enable new arrivals to embark on a path toward self-sufficiency, and ultimately, become completely in control of the direction of their new lives. CWS staff ensures refugees immediate access to food, shelter, and medical care, in addition to providing legal counseling, employment services, and links to community partnerships. Ellen explained that, "Most of them want, and plan, to return home someday, but unfortunately that is often not the case. Families must decide what, and whom, to take: will elderly family members or small children slow them down? Will travelling be dangerous? How long will the journey take? Do we have financial resources? If so, how long will they last, and how will they access them? The resettlement process can take over a decade, with the average time span being 2.5 years from start to finish. Organizations interview the refugees extensively to determine the validity of their "story" and thorough background checks and health screenings are conducted. The State Department provides a one-time stipend. Ellen says, "The foundation of our Program is that the refugees will seek and secure employment in order to support themselves and their loved ones." Fewer than one per cent of those who flee actually have the opportunity to resettle in another country; the United States resettles more refugees than any other country in the world. Since 2011, the number of refugees worldwide has grown by 40 per cent, from 42.5 million to 65.3 million. More than 50 per cent come from three countries --- Somalia, Syria, and Afghanistan. Tragically, more than half of those are children.

We have another opportunity, as we did last Summer, to work with Classroom Teachers in the EDCI STEAM Summer Camp. This is a free day camp for rising 3rd – 5th Grade Students in East Durham. EDCI STEAM Classroom Volunteers assist students in a variety of daily hands-on STEAM activities led by a STEAM professional/educator during the 9:30 a.m. – 12 Noon Sessions. You can play a vital role in encouraging and inspiring the students! See Brady Surlis For Additional Information.
