THE ROTARY CLUB OF DURHAM END OF YEAR CELEBRATION 2014-15

The stars twinkled on a great Rotary night as we celebrated the end of one Rotary Year and the beginning of another. Many things happened and your intrepid Communications Committee was caught short-handed. In the next couple of weeks, we will try to catch up and give each of these milestones their due on the website.

Outgoing President, Vandana Dake and her Vice-President, Todd Taylor, orchestrated the show and a series of toasts to all the accomplishments of the Rotary Year, along with several significant recognitions. Review the PowerPoint below for a great sense of the event and the pictures below for additional looks. A PDF version of the PowerPoint is available at: <http://durhamrotaryclub.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/07/2-Rotary-EOY-Final-PPT-6-29-15-updated-with-TT.pdf>.

Many of the recapped events had write-ups on the website and in the Bulletin archives when they occurred. Many are touched on in the PowerPoint presentation used at the event that is embedded below, but several do not.

Look for more on these items:

Melissa Mills sharing during her Rotary Minute the excitement of attending The Rotary Peace Conference in Brazil.

Recognition of the two folks that work pretty much behind the scenes to make our meetings go so well. Executive Secretary, Sharon Lassiter, and Rotarian, Convention Center Manager and Chief Photographer, Jen Noble.

The full report by Foundation Chair, Dallas Stallings of the record setting year for The Foundation and Paul Harris Fellowship. Carol Roycroft topped the year off with her Paul Harris Fellow Award.

The 1,000 + Acts of Service already achieved at the halfway mark in our Centennial Year, reported by Brady Surles and smashing the fund raising goal at the same milestone reported by Don Stanger.

The presentation of two Paul Harris Fellow Awards --- one to Brady Surles and one to Mimi O'Brien -- for their service to the Club using accumulated points contributed by other members.

The presentation of Rotarian of The Year Award to Brady Surles for his efforts in organizing and reporting on the 100 Acts of Service.

The presentation of The Annual Community Service Award to a Non-Rotarian to Former Head of The Duke Medical Center, Victor Dzau, and the acceptance, via video, from Dr. Dzau and his wife, Rotarian, Ruth Dzau.

Words of praise from Assistant District Governor, Joyce McKinney, for our record-setting new member and attendance achievements capped off by the induction of our newest member, Sylvain Marguerat, who is sponsored by Matt Kopac.

Remarks by two Peace Scholars, Ryan Rowe, from Canada and UNC, and Daniela Tort, from Mexico and Duke.

Recognition of Anna Jones celebrity status for the write of her documentary achievement chronicled in the Rotary Magazine.

Recognition to the old Board and Committee Members and encouragement to the new ones.

New District Governor, Newman Aguiar, spoke, striking the same themes that marked his inauguration the week before.

The passing of the gavel of leadership from one outstanding President, Vandana Dake, to a new one with equal promise, Lois Deloatch.

Whew!! There are a number of committee reports that deserve more attention that we will get to in the coming weeks, including Program and International.
